

Financially Supported Missions: We have a number of congregants who prefer to give quietly from behind the scenes and we have many opportunities for these silent missionaries. Our congregation generously supports a wide range of ministries throughout the year, beginning with the Teaching Our Toddlers (TOT) Preschool located in our church facility where many if not most of the students are from families that are not members of our church.